1.1 The definitions and rules of interpretation in this clause apply in these terms. ASH Containers: the containers provided to the Customer for the purposes of the disposal and collection of the Customer's waste Contract: the waste collection agreement, and any continuation thereof, entered into between ASH and the Customer Customer: the person, firm or company who benefits from the Services provided by ASH. Contract Period: as defined in clause 2.6 (below) Services: principally waste collection and disposal but includes any and all services provided or to be provided by ASH to the Customer Start Date: the sooner of (i) the date on which the Customer agrees to accept these terms (usually by signing the Contract) or, (ii) the date on which ASH provides Services to the Customer. VAT: value added tax chargeable under English law for the time being and any similar additional tax.

1.2 A reference to a statute or statutory provision is a reference to it as it is in force for the time being.

1.3 Any obligation in these terms on the Customer not to do something includes an obligation not to agree, allow, permit or acquiesce in that thing being done.

1.4 Subject to clause 9.3 any obligation on and/or reference to the Customer shall include that party's agents, sub-contractors or employees.

2.1 These terms shall apply to the Services. The Terms shall bind the Customer immediately upon the Start Date.

2.2 The Services shall be supplied for the Contract Period unless terminated in accordance with clause 8. If the Customer does not want the Services to be provided beyond the Contract Period then the Customer must provide written notice to ASH with that notice expiring on the exact date on which the Contract Period expires. This notice must be received by ASH not less than 3 and not more than 5 months before the precise date on which the Contract Period expires.

2.3 If this agreement is not terminated in accordance with clause 2.2 then it shall roll-over on these terms for a period of 36 months (a "Successive Period"). Every 36 months, the agreement will renew again for a further Successive Period unless and until terminated in accordance with clause 2.4.

2.4 If the Customer does not want the agreement to renew into a further Successive Period, the Customer must provide written notice to ASH with that notice expiring on the exact date on which the Successive Period expires. This notice must be received by ASH not less than 3 and not more than 5 months before the precise date on which the Successive Period expires.

2.5 Any notices given pursuant to clauses 2.2 and/or 2.4 must comply with clause 9.15.

2.6 Contract Period shall mean (unless expressly stated otherwise in the Contract): (i) in the case of a new Customer 36 calendar months beginning on the date on which the containers are delivered to the Customer (ii) in the case of an existing Customer, 36 calendar months beginning on the date on which the new or extended contract is entered into or, if earlier, Services start after agreement regarding a new or extended contract has been reached.

3.1 ASH shall use reasonable endeavours to provide the Services. Any collection of waste made by ASH shall be in accordance with the relevant legislation. ASH is only obliged to collect waste stored in the ASH Containers and shall not be obliged to collect any waste which is not safely and securely deposited in the ASH Containers.

3.2 Time shall not be of the essence in respect of the Services. A failure by ASH to make a collection on any particular day shall not be a breach of this agreement nor shall it constitute negligence. If the Customer alleges that ASH has missed a collection, the burden shall be on the Customer to prove, by way of contemporaneous documentary evidence, that the collection was missed. Any missed collections must be reported by email to the ASH customer services team within 48 hours. Unless the Customer makes an email complaint within that period, the presumption shall be that the collection took place as scheduled.

3.3 Upon the Customer's waste being placed in an ASH wagon by ASH, title in and ownership of that waste shall vest in ASH. The Customer will remain liable to ASH as provided for in clause 4.8 in respect of any substance deposited in the ASH Containers.

4.1 The Customer shall:

(a) Co-operate with ASH in all matters relating to the Services;

(b) Provide ASH, in a timely manner and at no charge, with access to the (i) Customer's premises as necessary to provide the Services and (ii) the ASH Containers (including space necessary for parking, reversing and turning ASH's wagons). The driver of the ASH wagon may, at their discretion, refuse to make a collection if they consider that to proceed with the collection would compromise the health and safety of any party, or if the ASH Container is overloaded. In the event that ASH cannot, through no fault of its own, access the Containers in order to perform the Services the Customer shall be responsible for resolving any such access issues (at its own cost) ;

(c) be responsible (at its own cost) for preparing and maintaining the relevant premises for the supply of the Services including ensuring that the containers are located in a safe and accessible position as well as ensuring that the ASH Containers are accessible for collection;

(d) Inform ASH of all health and safety rules and regulations and any other reasonable security requirements that apply at the Customer's premises;

(e) Obtain and maintain all necessary licences and consents and comply with all relevant legislation, regulations and good practice in relation to the Services;

(f) Only deposit in the ASH Containers, the type of waste detailed in the Contract. In particular, the Customer shall not deposit any confidential and/or contaminated waste and/or include waste which requires notification under the Special Waste Regulations 1980;

(g) Place all waste into the ASH Containers in sealed bags;

(h) Not overload the ASH Containers. Overloading shall mean:

(i) In the case of general waste, more than 55kg per cubic metre of waste deposited in the individual ASH Container; or

(ii) in the case of glass, cardboard, dry mixed recycling or any other recyclables, more than 35kg per cubic metre of waste deposited in the individual ASH Container;

(iii) The ASH Container is too heavy or unsafe to move with the sole opinion of ASH being determinative as to what constitutes too heavy or unsafe;

(iv) Placing such waste in the ASH Container so that the lid cannot be closed.

(v) Use ASH and only ASH to provide the Services, or provide services materially similar to the Services, from the beginning of the Contract Period;

(j) If ASH is assisting the Customer in dealing with any incumbent Service provider, the Customer shall provide ASH with such reasonable assistance as ASH may require in respect of those dealings. In particular, the Customer hereby acknowledges that once it signs the Contract it is obliged to permit ASH to start the Services upon the lawful coming to an end of the Customer's contract with the incumbent provider. The Customer shall owe ASH a duty of good faith during any gap between the Start Date and the beginning of the Contract Period.

(k)

4.2 The Customer warrants that:

(a) The details of its waste requirements given to ASH prior to entering into this agreement are true and accurate; and

(b) The Customer is using the Services solely and exclusively in connection with a business that the Customer is operating.

4.3 The Customer shall have no right of lien over the ASH Containers.

4.4 Save as provided for in clause 4.5 the ASH Containers remain at all times the property of ASH but whilst the ASH Containers are in the Customer's possession the Customer shall keep and maintain the ASH Containers in good condition, insure them and not dispose of or use the ASH Containers other than for the purpose for which they have been supplied by ASH.

4.5 The Customer acknowledges that the ASH Containers are solely to be used at the Customer's premises and the containers are not intended to be used, nor are they suitable to be used, on the public highway. If, for whatever reason, the Customer does place any of the ASH Containers off the Customer's premises then:

(a) For the purpose only of sections 139 and 140 of the Highways Act 1980 and the Builders' Skips (Markings) Regulations 1984 the Customer is deemed to be the owner of any ASH Containers;

(b) The Customer is responsible for ensuring that any ASH Containers comply with the requirements of the Highways Act 1980, the Builders' Skip (Markings) Regulations 1984 and the requirements or conditions imposed by any local or governmental authority for so long as the ASH Container is in the possession of the Customer;

(c) In addition to any other requirements placed on the Customer pursuant to this agreement the Customer shall take all reasonable precautions and exercise all due diligence in respect of ensuring that the ASH Containers do not pose any health and/or safety risk, including but not limited to ensuring that at night the following precautions are taken (i) A traffic lamp in working order and which complies with the Traffic Sign Regulations shall be placed or attached to the ASH Containers, and (ii) Each traffic lamp shall have an illuminate power of not less than 1 candela and shall remain lit throughout hours of darkness.

4.6 ASH may, from time to time and without notice, change the Services (including but not limited to the time and date of collections) provided that such changes do not adversely affect the fundamental nature of the Services (a change to a collection date shall not be considered to adversely affect the Services).

4.7 If ASH's performance of its obligations under this agreement is prevented or delayed by any act or omission of the Customer, ASH shall not be liable for any costs, charges or losses sustained or incurred by the Customer arising directly or indirectly from such prevention or delay.

4.8 The Customer shall be liable to pay to ASH, on demand, all reasonable costs, charges or losses sustained or incurred by ASH (including any direct, indirect or consequential losses, loss of profit and loss of reputation, loss or damage to property and those arising from injury to or death of any person and loss of opportunity to deploy resources elsewhere) arising directly or indirectly from the Customer's fraud, negligence, failure to perform or delay in the performance of any of its obligations under this agreement, subject to ASH confirming such costs, charges and losses to the Customer in writing.

4.9 In the event that the Customer fails and/or refuses to pay ASH any sum when due the Customer shall be liable to pay ASH as a debt any costs/charges/fees incurred (including but not limited to legal costs and court fees) by ASH and/or its agents.

5.1 Subject to any of ASH's rights to vary charges, the price for the Services shall be the higher of (i) the price set out in the Contract, or (ii) if these terms apply to the renewal or extension of a Contract, the price paid by the Customer to ASH in respect of the Services in the month immediately preceding the start date of the Successive Period.

5.2 The Services shall be paid for monthly in advance. Payment for the Services shall not be conditional upon an invoice being raised. All payments made by the Customer under this agreement shall be made in full without any set-off or counterclaim. All sums payable by the Customer pursuant to this agreement, including those payable pursuant to clause 8.3, are due to ASH as a debt.

5.3 The Customer shall pay for the Services, in full and in cleared funds on the first calendar day of the month or immediately upon receipt of an invoice, or within 7 days of the date of the invoice, whichever is the sooner. If no invoice is raised, and the Customer is not paying by direct debit, the payment for any given collection shall be due within 30 days of the collection taking place.

5.4 If the Customer has a genuine dispute regarding an invoice, that dispute must be made in writing to ASH (email will suffice) within 14 days of the date of the invoice. The Customer must provide full details of the nature of the dispute and clause 3.2 shall apply (if relevant). The Customer shall be prohibited from disputing an invoice if the Customer has not raised a dispute in accordance with this clause.

5.5 At the commencement of the Contract ASH may require, at its absolute discretion, the Customer pay to ASH a deposit in such sum as ASH deems appropriate. Any such deposit paid will be held by ASH until such time as this agreement is lawfully brought to an end. ASH may use the deposit, at any time, to discharge or reduce any liabilities owed to it by the Customer whether pursuant to this agreement or otherwise. If, at the end of this agreement, the Customer has no financial liability to ASH then the deposit shall be returned to the Customer. ASH shall not be liable to account to the Customer for any interest earned on the deposit (if any).

5.6 Without prejudice to any other right or remedy that it may have, if the Customer fails to pay ASH on the due date, ASH may charge under the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998. Interest on such other sums as ASH may be due will be charged from the due date for payment at the annual rate of 4% per annum above the base interest rate from time to time of the Bank of England.

5.7 Time for payment of any monies due to ASH from the Customer shall be of the essence. The Customer acknowledges that if any payment due to ASH is not made and/or if a direct debit instruction is cancelled by the Customer or returned by the Customer's bank, ASH shall be entitled to suspend the provision of Services until all payments have been made in full. Any return or cancellation of a direct debit shall incur a £25 charge which the Customer accepts is a reasonable charge to compensate ASH for additional administrative costs and work. ASH shall still be entitled to charge the Customer for the Services as if they had been supplied during any period when the Services have been suspended pursuant to this clause.

5.8 All sums payable to ASH under this agreement shall become due immediately on termination of this agreement.

5.9 ASH may, without prejudice to any other rights it may have, set off any liability of the Customer to ASH against any liability of ASH to the Customer.

5.10 The prices quoted by ASH are based on a maximum weight per container per lift which is set out in the Contract. If a container exceeds this weight then ASH shall retain the right to charge reasonable additional sums to the Customer in respect of that additional waste. In the case of any disagreement as to how much excess waste was in the container, ASH's records shall be determinative.

5.11 In the event that ASH is required to or does make collections in addition to those detailed in the Contract or agreed between the parties, ASH shall be entitled to charge a reasonable price for that additional work.

5.12 ASH shall be entitled to vary the price payable for the Services so long as (i) there are no more than 3 price variations in any one calendar year, and (ii) the aggregate of any price variations in a calendar year do not increase the price by more than 45% (excluding VAT) from the contracted collection rate at the beginning of the calendar year in which the variations are made. If ASH proposes to vary the price in a way that does not accord with this clause 5.12, the Customer shall have a right to, but shall not be obliged to, terminate the Contract on the express condition that the termination is notified to ASH in writing within 14 calendar days of the date on which the price increase which falls foul of this clause was first notified to the Customer.

5.13 All prices quoted and charged shall be exclusive of VAT.

6.1 The Customer shall keep in strict confidence any and all information and documents which have been provided to the Customer by ASH and any other confidential information concerning ASH's business or its products which the Customer may obtain.

7.

7.1 This clause sets out the entire financial liability of ASH to the Customer in respect of any breach of this agreement, any use made by the Customer of the Services and any representation, statement or tortious act or omission (including negligence) arising under or in connection with this agreement.

7.2 All warranties, conditions and other terms implied by statute or common law are, to the fullest extent permitted by law, excluded from this agreement.

7.3 Nothing in this agreement limits or excludes the liability of ASH:

(a) For death or personal injury resulting from negligence; or

(b) For any damage or liability incurred by the Customer as a result of fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation by ASH.

7.4 Subject to clauses 7.2 and 7.3,

(a) ASH shall not be liable for loss of profits, loss of business, depletion of goodwill and/or similar losses, loss of anticipated savings, loss of goods and/or any special, indirect, consequential or pure economic loss, costs, damages, charges or expenses; and

(b) ASH's total liability in contract, tort (including negligence or breach of statutory duty), misrepresentation, restitution or otherwise arising in connection with the performance or contemplated performance of this agreement shall be limited to ASH's net profit made in respect of the Services during the calendar year in which the liability arises.

7.5 The Customer hereby acknowledges that the price payable under this agreement is directly related to the level of risk undertaken by ASH and that if the Customer so desired a variation of the price could be negotiated on the basis that the Customer required ASH to increase its level of risk.

8.1 If the Customer materially breaches this agreement or becomes, or in the reasonable opinion of ASH is likely to become, insolvent ASH may (without prejudice to its other rights) forthwith terminate this agreement. The following is a non-exhaustive list of the clauses which shall constitute a material breach: 4.1, 4.2, 4.5, 4.8, 5.3, 6.1 and 9.2.

8.2 On termination of this agreement for any reason:

(a) The Customer shall immediately pay to ASH all of ASH's outstanding unpaid invoices and any interest that has accrued; and

(b) The Customer shall, within 7 days of termination, make available to ASH all of the ASH Containers. If the Customer fails to do so, then ASH may enter the Customer's premises and take possession of them. Within 14 days of ASH re-taking possession of the ASH Containers, the Customer shall reimburse ASH the cost of the refurbishment of the container(s) used in connection with the Services. This refurbishment charge will depend on the extent of refurbishment necessary but in any event shall be subject to a minimum of £50 plus VAT for a wheeled bin container and £150 plus VAT for an R.E.L.F.E.L. container. The Customer shall also pay a container collection charge to be quoted by ASH on termination but notwithstanding this the Customer shall be liable to pay the collection charge within 30 days of the collection having taken place.

8.3 In the event that ASH terminates this agreement for a reason which is not ASH's fault the Customer shall pay to ASH, by way of liquidated damages, a sum equivalent to 42% of the total charges payable to ASH between the date of termination and the next date on which this agreement could lawfully have been brought to an end on notice by the Customer. If ASH terminates this agreement without ever having started waste collection services, the period for which ASH shall be entitled to be compensated shall be 36 calendar months commencing on the Start Date as opposed to the date of termination. The Customer hereby acknowledges that the sums payable pursuant to this liquidated damages clause are not a penalty and are reasonable in the circumstances and that the price payable under this agreement would be higher if the Customer wished to exclude this liquidated damages clause.

8.4 ASH may, at its absolute discretion and without any obligation whatsoever on it to do so, agree to accept early termination of this agreement by the Customer. ASH's consent to such early termination shall be conditional on the payment by the Customer of an early termination payment in such a sum as determined by ASH, at its absolute discretion.

8.5 The accrued rights of the parties as at termination and the continuation of any provision expressly stated to survive or implicitly surviving termination, shall not be affected. Nothing in this clause 8 shall prejudice ASH's other rights or remedies.

9.1 Given the value of the work involved the parties agree that it is not practical to issue delivery tickets or obtain signatures for each collection. ASH's records shall stand as proof of service.

9.2 This agreement is personal to the Customer and cannot be assigned without ASH's prior written consent. ASH may assign, subcontract, novate, transfer or deal in any other manner with all or any of its rights or obligations under this agreement.

9.3 ASH will not accept any correspondence from and shall not deal with the Customer at all with any party other than the Customer in respect of the Services and this agreement. This means that ASH shall not deal with the Customer's party agent if the Customer decided to appoint one.

9.4 The Customer acknowledges and agrees that details of the Customer's name, address and payment record may be submitted to a credit reference agency, and personal data will be processed by and on behalf of ASH in connection with the Services.

9.5 Each right or remedy of ASH under this agreement is without prejudice to any other right or remedy of ASH whether under this agreement or not.

9.6 ASH shall not be in breach of this agreement nor liable for delay in performing, or failure to perform, any of its obligations under this agreement if such delay or failure results from events, circumstances or causes beyond its reasonable control.

9.7 This agreement constitutes the whole agreement between ASH and the Customer and supersedes any previous arrangement, understanding or agreement between them relating to the subject matter of this agreement.

9.8 The Customer acknowledges that, in entering into this agreement it does not rely on any statement, representation, assurance or warranty of any person (whether a party to this agreement or not) other than as expressly set out in this agreement and in the Contract.

9.9 Nothing in this agreement is intended to, or shall be deemed to, establish any partnership or joint venture between any of the parties.

9.10 If any provision of this agreement is found by any court, tribunal or administrative body of competent jurisdiction to be wholly or partly illegal, invalid, void, voidable, unenforceable or unreasonable it shall, to the extent of such illegality, invalidity, voidness, voidability, unenforceability or unreasonableness, be deemed severable and the remaining provisions of this agreement and the remainder of such provision shall continue in full force and effect.

9.11 Failure or delay by ASH in enforcing or partially enforcing any provision of this agreement shall not be construed as a waiver of any of its rights under this agreement.

9.12 No variation of this agreement shall be effective unless it is in writing and signed by the parties (or their authorised representatives).

9.13 The parties to this agreement do not intend that any term of this agreement shall be enforceable by virtue of this agreement (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 by any person that is not a party to it.

9.14 The formation, existence, construction, performance, validity and all aspects of this agreement and any and all matters relating to it shall be governed by English law and the parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.

9.15 Any notice or written request given by the Customer in relation to the Services and these terms, including but not limited to notice to terminate this agreement, shall be in writing, sent for the attention of the Managing Director, delivered by recorded delivery and provide the date of the notice. Any notice or request which does not comply with this clause shall not be a valid.
