Comment Reasons:

Comment: To add to my previous comments, I see that LIDL has been in the news this week, criticised for providing cheap food to customers by paying foreign suppliers unfairly. This is not the way to provide communities here with reasonably priced food.

Also LIDL would act as a magnet to older school age children, increasing risk to safety with already busy road crossings and probable poor food choices. I guess LIDL have seen this catchment as a goldmine with hundreds of children ie potential buyers in the area. Again - unethical.

I am not against supermarkets but in that position and at the cost to health of local people and also foreign workers this is a big no no that the local council and MCC should stand against.
