I am wanting to apply for planning permission of a single story extension onto the proposed house however i need a certificate of lawful development. the house has been split for over 20 years and has had tenants living there for this period of time. Eve has told me that if i can prove that the dwellings were occupied for over 4 years then this will help my case for getting the approval. i have well over 4 years of tenancy agreements and will provide these to the council for their approval.
