- Hand-drawn floor plan of a three-story building. The plan is divided into three horizontal sections labeled 1, 2, and 3 from top to bottom. Section 1 (top) is labeled '1' and contains a large rectangular area with a smaller rectangle inside, labeled '5'. Section 2 (middle) is labeled '2' and contains a large rectangular area with a smaller rectangle inside, labeled '4'. Section 3 (bottom) is labeled '3' and contains a large rectangular area with a smaller rectangle inside, labeled '3'. To the right of the plan, there are handwritten notes: 'Cut Existing' and 'Cut Existing' with arrows pointing to the right side of the plan. The plan is drawn with simple lines and includes some shading to indicate walls and openings.
