Details of the pre-application advice received

Discussions between the applicant and Adam were made regarding the proposal while Adam visited the neighbouring property. The applicant had been misled by a builder who told them they did not require planning permission. The builder then ended up leaving the job half way with the money therefore it was raised that planning was required.

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
- (b) an elected member
- (c) related to a member of staff

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.
