Hello Angela

On the accessibility arrangements, there were only 2 potential options for a lift that have had to be discounted:

- Refurbishing the existing lift shaft within the Depot and installing a new lift with an overrun is cost prohibitive and would render the proposals unviable.
- The lift access in the Gatehouse via the bridge is part of U+Is demise and does not form part of Broadwick's agreement for lease. This is controlled by the security office who are only there during daytime hours, so wouldn't be able to facilitate access out of hours in any case.

Broadwick are working with Attitude is Everything to make sure that all guests' accessibility needs are met and the venue continues to improve moving forward to maximise accessibility. I'll get some more details on this and I'm sure they'd be happy to talk to Lorraine in more detail.

The stairlift ordered and to be installed is both highly reliable and under guarantee with a 24 hour call out. It can be both manually and remotely operated and all staff are trained to use it as per the management strategy. Broadwick will check this regularly to make sure it's in working order on a daily basis.

There is an alternative way of getting up to the rooftop, which effectively means driving up the ramp to the Depot roof and parking a car in a back of house location, to which level access is provided to and from the rooftop cinema venue.

All guests who purchase tickets will be asked if there are any accessibility needs and they'll be contacted directly by Backyard Cinema to understand their needs and if they are comfortable with the access to the roof and if they have any additional needs.

Let me know if you need any further clarifications and I can speak to Broadwick again.

Kind regards
Mikey

Hi Mikey

Before I have further internal discussions on the Accessibility arrangements can you confirm why it is not possible for alternative lift access to be provided. For example the use of the lift to the Gatehouse or lift access direct to the platform. What back up would there be in the event that the chair lift broke down for example.

Best Wishes

Angela

Hello Angela

Apologies for chasing so soon on the Depot Rooftop Cinema, but wanted to check that requests for consultation responses have gone out, what the cut off date will be for further comments and whether you've got anything at this stage you need us to look at?

Kind regards
