Grant of Certificate of Lawful Use of Development

Manchester City Council hereby certify that on 29 June 2022 the use/operations specified below and described in the First Schedule in respect of the land specified in the Second Schedule and more particularly identified on the plan attached to this certificate edged in red, was lawful within the meaning of section 192 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended), for the following reason(s):

Part B Installation of rear dormer

Grant Part B on the basis that the proposed rear dormer as shown on drawings PS212 Rev D, PS522 Rev D, PS122 Rev D and Location Plan constitutes permitted development in accordance with Part 1, Schedule 2, Class B of the Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) (England) Order 2015 (as amended).

Refusal of Certificate of Lawful Use or Development

Manchester City Council are not satisfied that on 29 June 2022 the use/operations specified below and described in the First Schedule in respect of the land specified in the Second Schedule and more particularly identified on the plan attached to this certificate edged in red, was lawful within the meaning of section 192 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended), for the following reason(s):

Part A - single storey rear extension

Refuse Part A on the basis that the proposed single storey rear extension as shown on PS212 Rev D, PS522 Rev D, PS122 Rev D and Location Plan does not constitute permitted development and is not in accordance with Part 1, Schedule 2, Class A.1 (j), (iii) of the Town and Country (General Permitted Development) Order 2015 (as amended).

Notes

1. This certificate is issued solely for the purposes of section 192 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended).
2. This certificate is issued solely to the extent of the use/operations described under the heading Grant of Certificate of Lawful Use or Development and to the land specified in the Second Schedule and identified on the attached plan. Any use/operations which is materially different from that described or which relates to other land may render the owner or occupier liable to enforcement action.
3. The effect of the Certificate is also qualified by the proviso in Section 192(4) of the 1990 Act, as amended, which states that the lawfulness of a described use or operation is only conclusively presumed where there has been no material change, before the use is instituted or the operations begun, in any of the matters relevant to determining such lawfulness.
4. If you are aggrieved by the decision of the local planning authority to refuse to grant a certificate of lawfulness for the use/operations described under the heading Refusal of Certificate of Lawful Use or Development, then you may appeal to the Secretary of State under section 195 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended).
5. There is no deadline for submitting your appeal. The Planning Inspectorate have introduced an online appeals service that can be used to make appeals online. This service is available through the Gov.uk website – www.gov.uk/planning-inspectorate.

The Inspectorate will publish details of your appeal on the internet. This may include a copy of the original application form and any supporting documents supplied to the local planning authority by you or your agent, together with the completed appeal form and information you submit to the Planning Inspectorate. Please ensure that you only provide information, including personal information, that you are happy will be made available to others in this way. If you supply personal information belonging to a third party please ensure you have their permission. More detailed information about data protection and privacy matters is available on the Planning Portal.
