
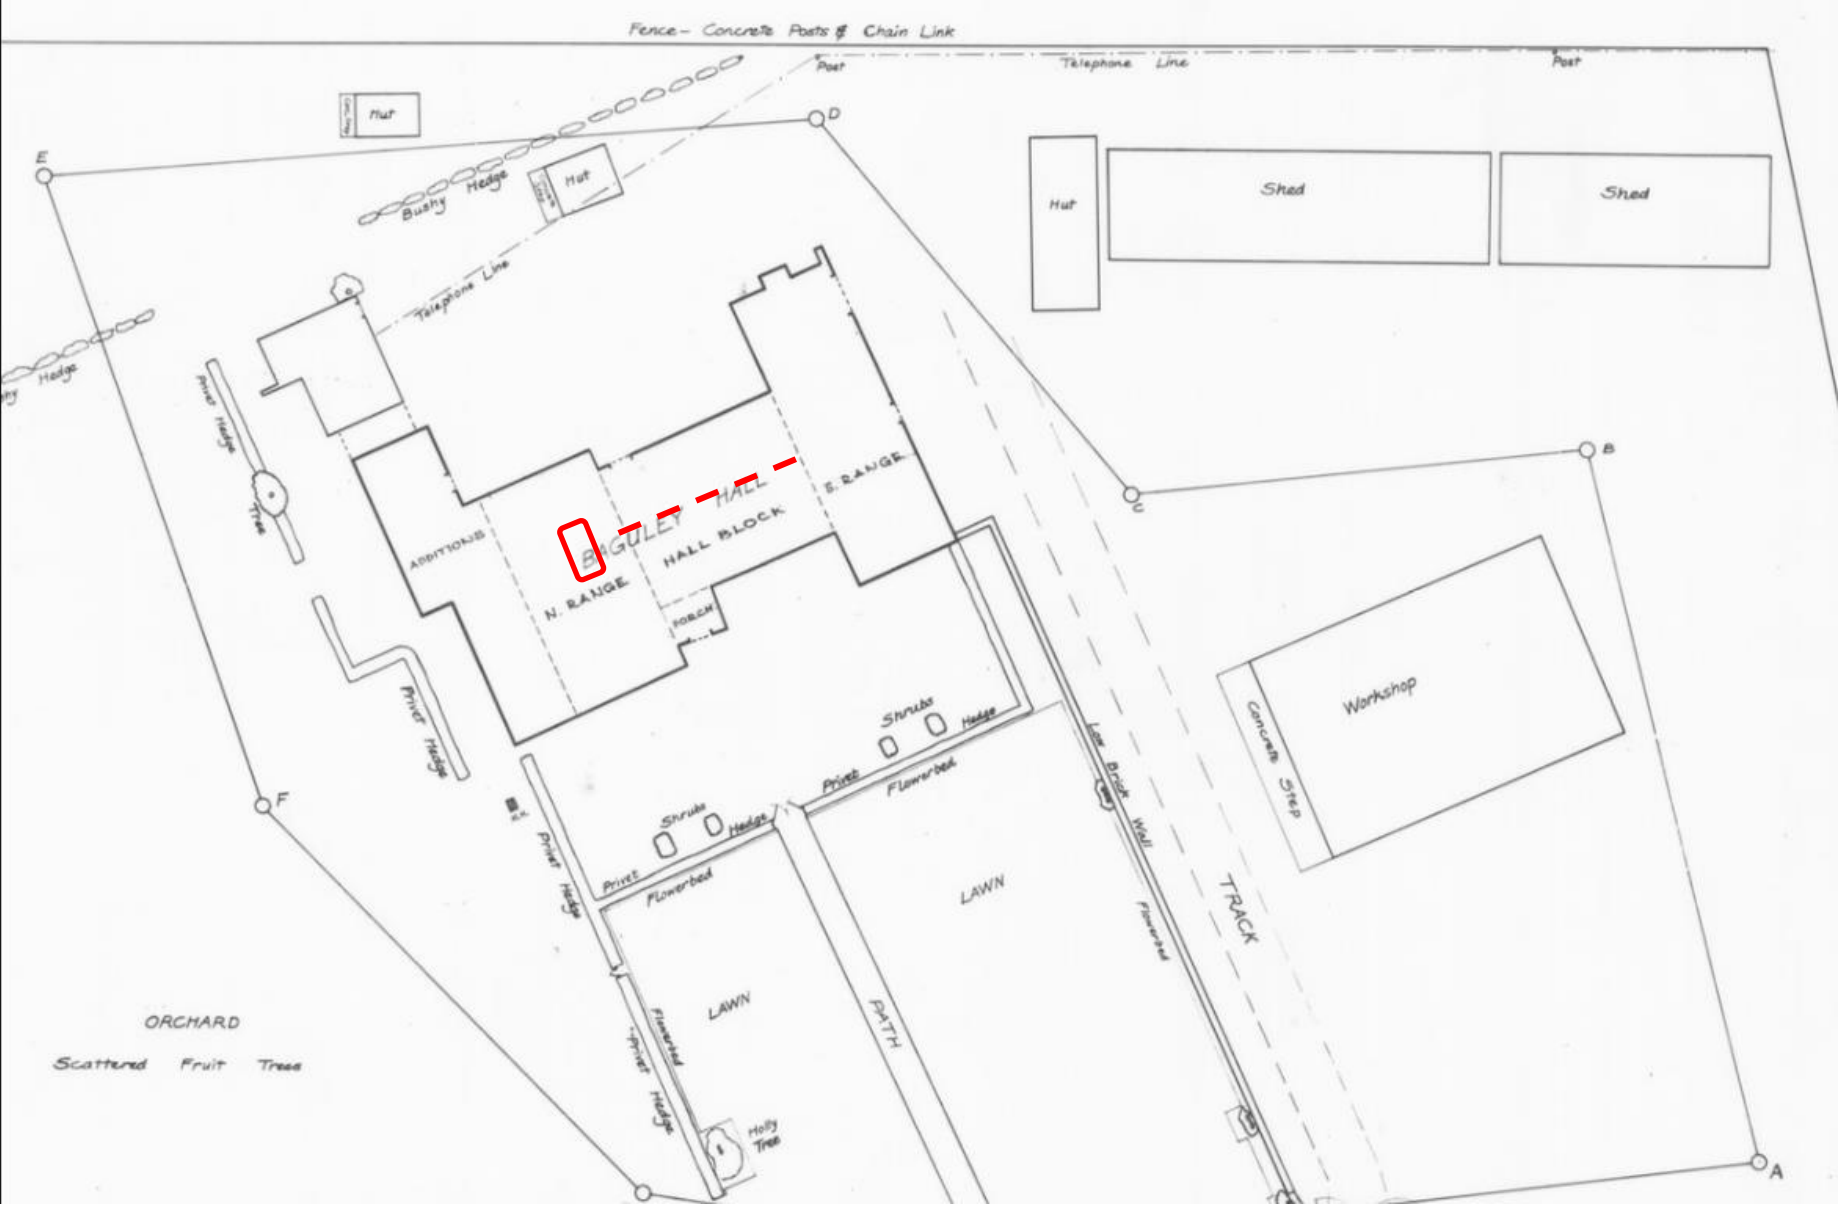

Figure 1: Site Plan: Location of aspirator unit and sampling pipe

Figure 2: a section through Baguley Hall (1949)

© Manchester City Council

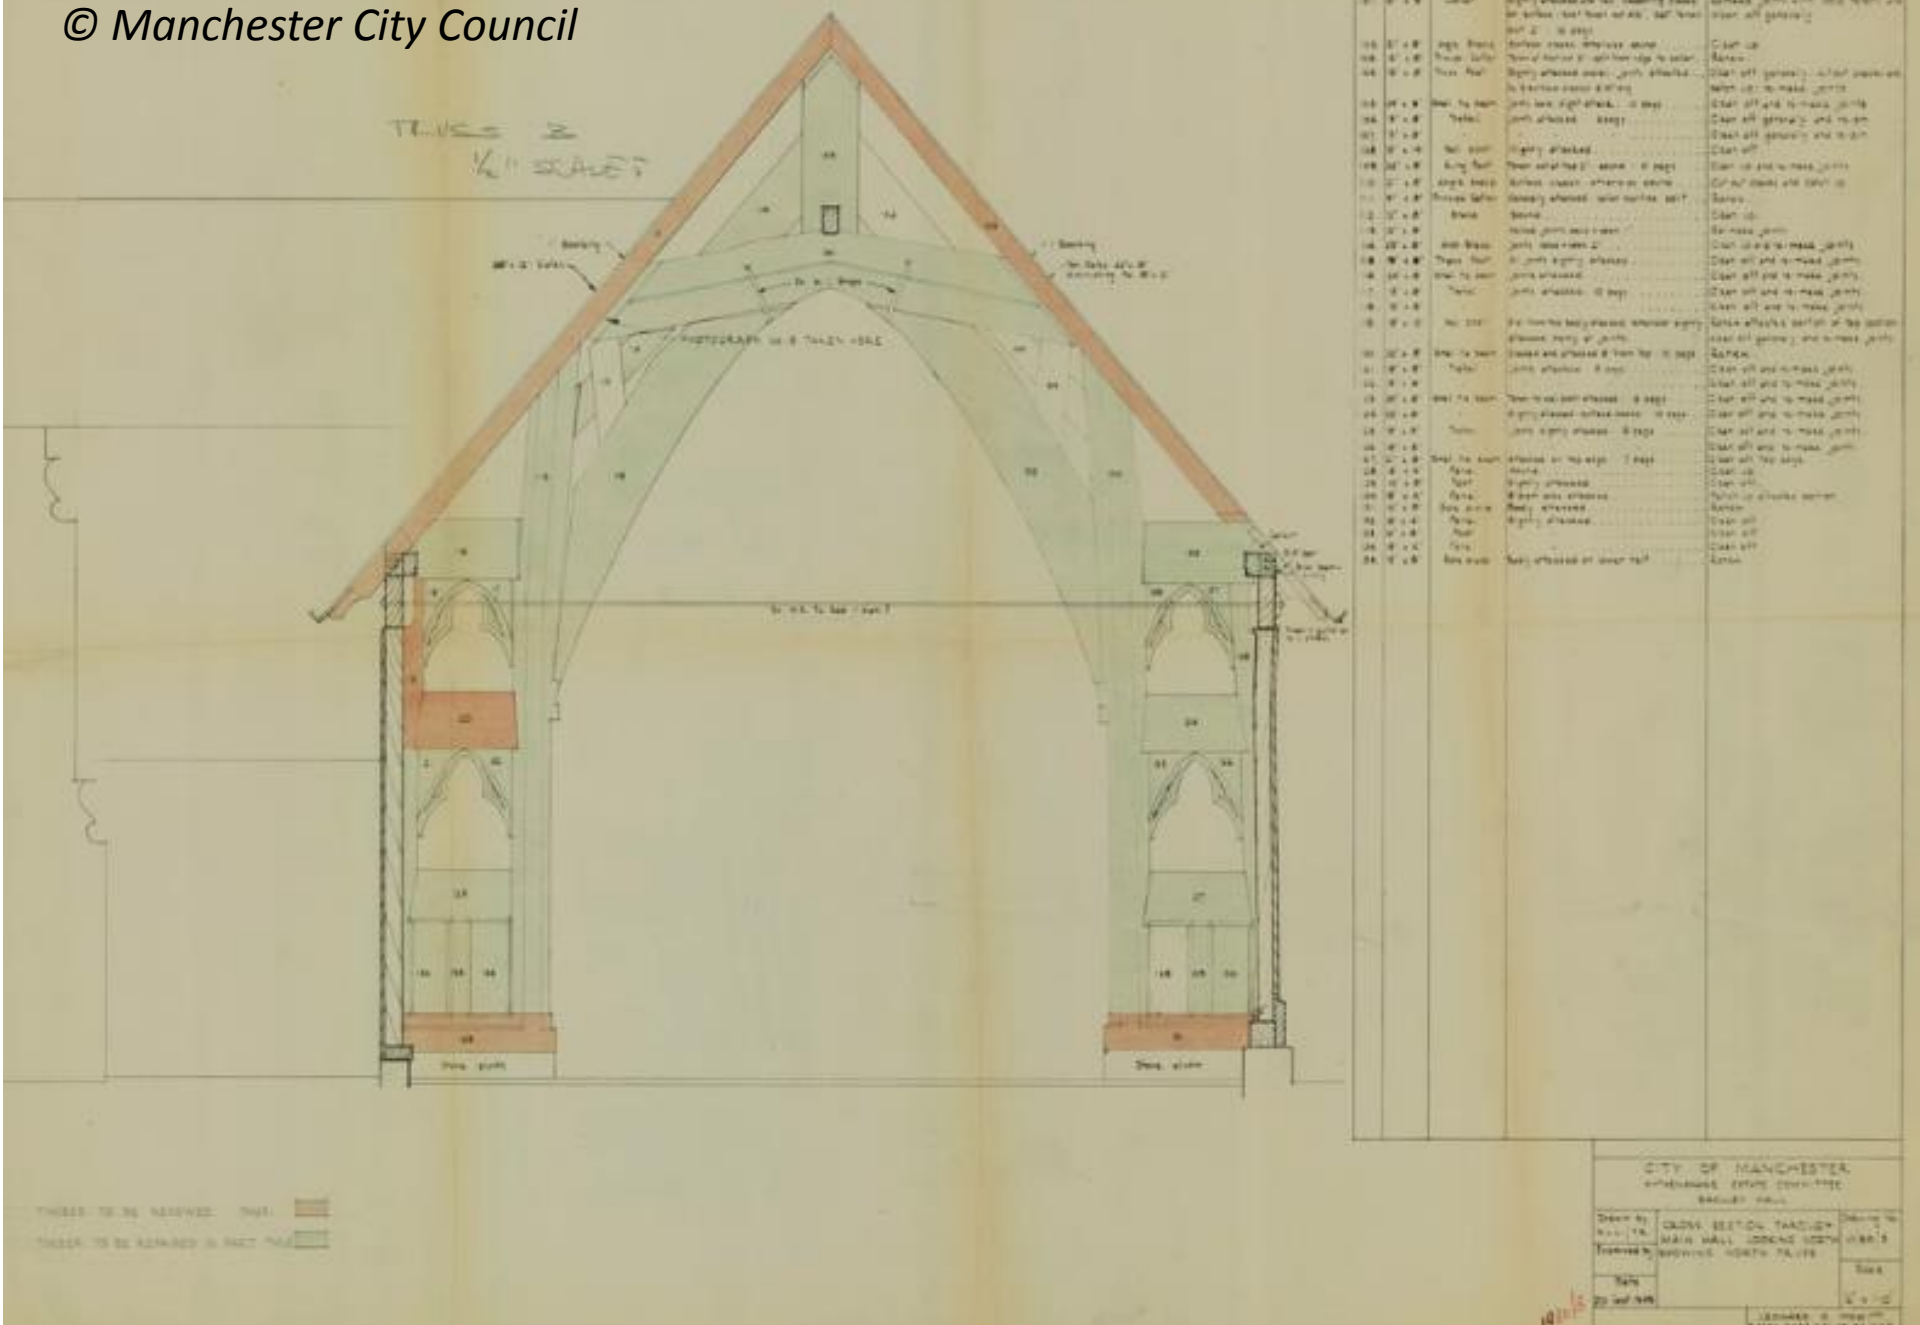

Figure 3: Location of control aspirator unit and pipe

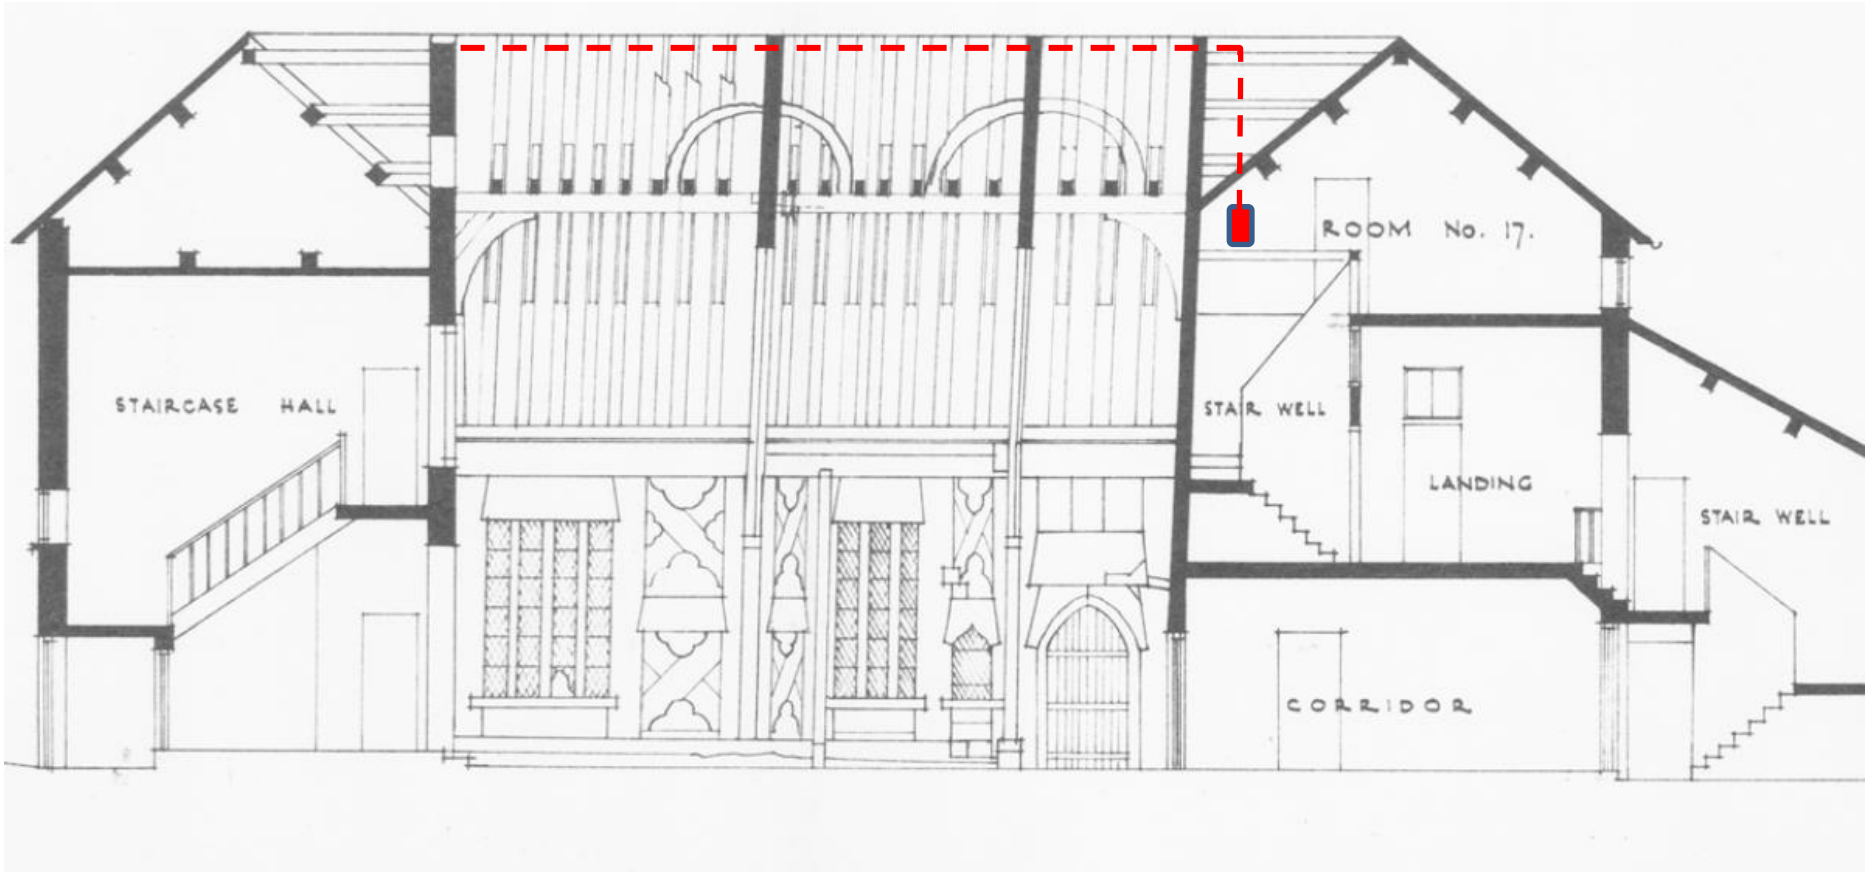
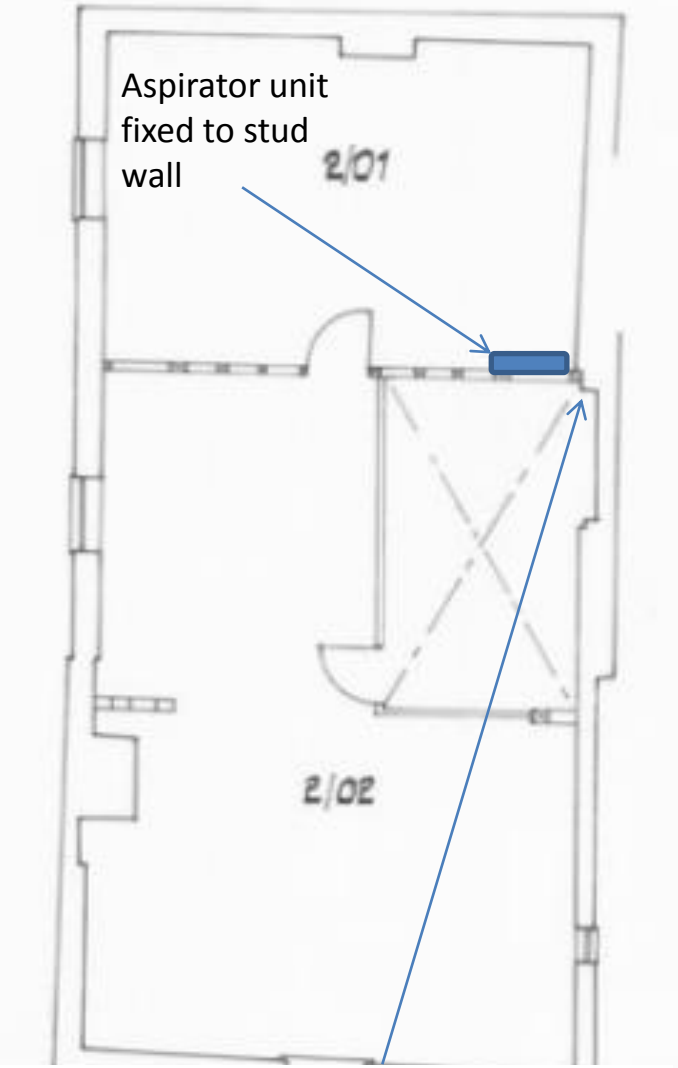


© Historic England Archive

Figure 4:



spirator pipe runs from control
anel into the roof void above own post (at the highest point of ne roof space to be most effective nd minimal visual impact).

Figure 5: 1971 view from room 2/02 to 2/01 where aspirator control panel will sit.
(Historic England Archive AL0524/065/01)

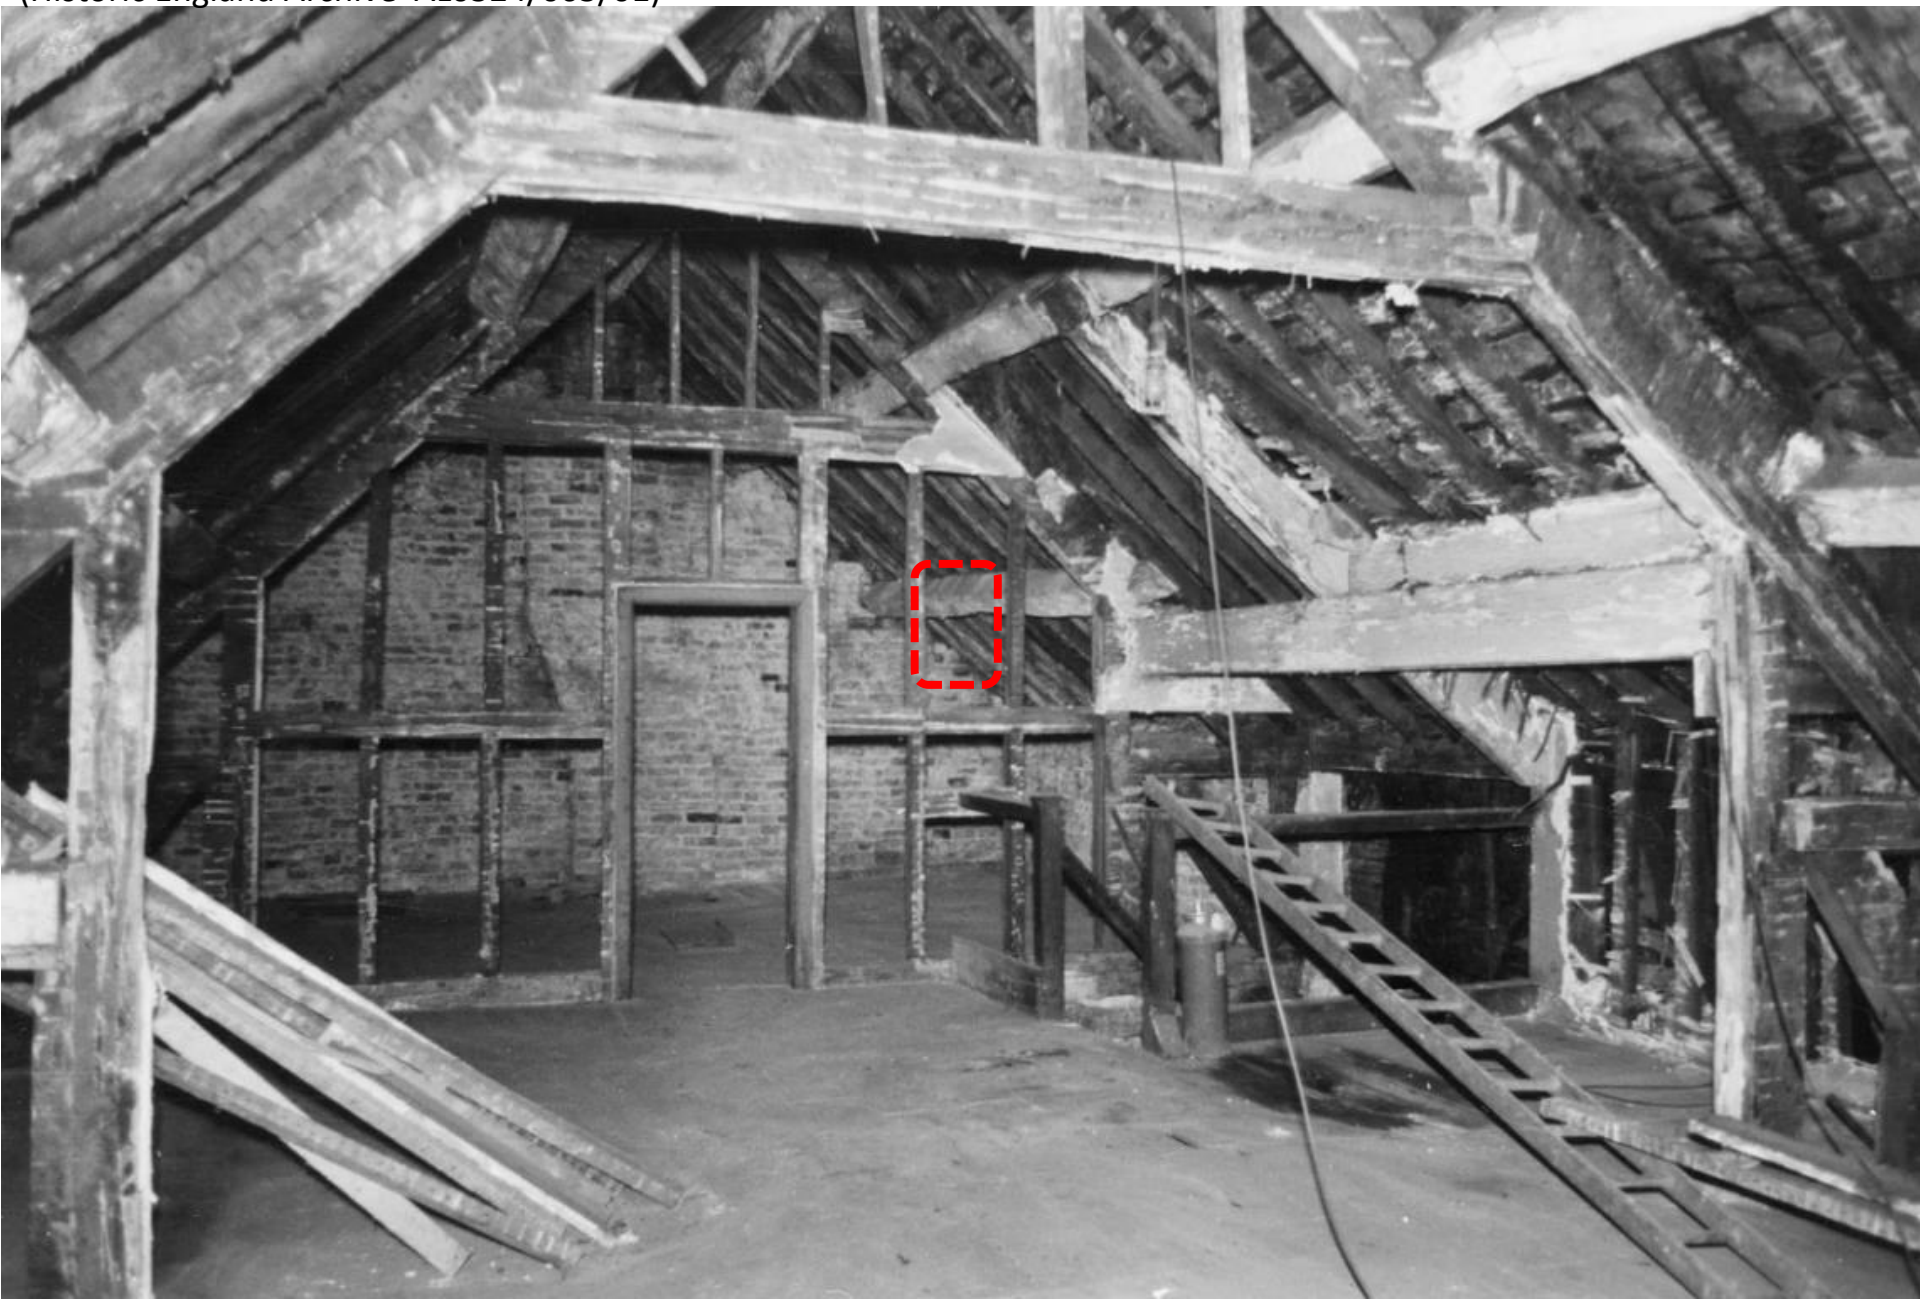

Figure 6: Dark grey 25mm aspirator pipe would be fitted above these trusses , and would not be seen from below (Historic England Archive (2005) DP004402)

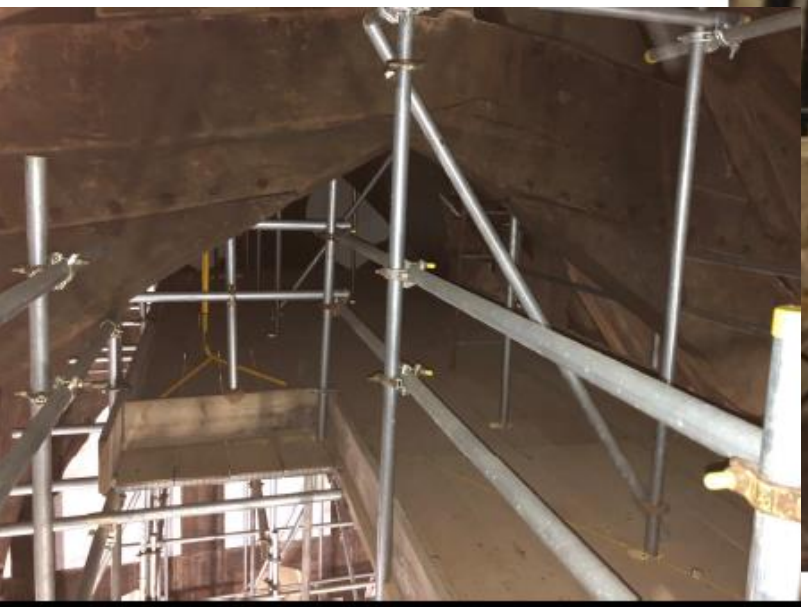
Figure 7:
Pipe run through apex of roof

Figure 8: Pipe run through apex of roof (existing cabling)

Figure 9: Photograph showing chipboard and plywood

Figure 10: underside of roof. Aspirator sampling pipe to be fixed to ply using brackets (between the rafters)

Figure 11


Scaffold currently providing access to high level detector heads