Description of site/building

The application relates to the seventh floor of the Grade II listed property present at 44-46A Princess Street, also known as the Langley Buildings. The building is a former textile warehouse dating from the late Victorian period, from between 1880-1890, now offices (Class E(g)(i)). Its façade is completed in red brick and sandstone window surrounds. Internally, the property has been subject to multiple modern office fitouts, though notable historic features survive in the form of cast iron columns. Though originally two separate buildings, and still comprising two separate listings, the property is cojoined to 40 Princess Street, with multiple points of access between both property's, essentially with them forming one larger property in a shared office use.

Listed building: Grade II

Conservation area: Whitworth Street Conservation Area 1985

Tree Preservation Order: Not applicable

Description of area

The neighbouring area lies within Manchester City Centre and the Whitworth Street Conservation Area. Neighbouring built development within The Conservation Area to the south of the application site is characterised by a high number of listed former Victorian warehouses that now lie in a variety of commercial and residential uses. To the north of the application site along Portland Street more modern properties of varying size, scale and materiality are present.

Description of development

The application seeks listed building consent for internal alterations to the property's seventh floor.

The proposed development consists of the insertion of partitions to create 3no 'work pod' rooms and 3no meeting rooms. Proposed partitions would be comprised largely of glazing and would abut the listed building's party wall with 40 Princess Street.

Other works revolve around minor redecoration works, with new floor, wall and ceiling finishes proposed to replace existing modern finishes.

144627/LO/2025 - Listed Building Consent for internal works to 8th floor – Application under consideration.

144273/LO/2025 - Listed building consent for internal reconfiguration works to the fourth and seventh floor – Approved October 2025.

Consultations & Notification Responses

Publicity – A site notice and press notice were issued. Neighbouring properties were notified of the proposals by letter. One representation was received that neither objected nor supported the proposal. The representation can be summarised as follows:

- A previous planning permission on site, 130099/FO/2021, which saw the approval of a travel plan and construction management plan that both required that there be no parking to the rear of the premises. Contrary to this however, the rear of the premises is used for parking causing a concern for safety
- In the event of an approval conditions should be attached requiring contractors' vehicles do not use this area for car parking and that no parking be allowed within it moving forward.

The submission made to the Local Planning Authority under this application is for internal listed building consent works. National legislation only stipulates that matters relating to the significance of the listed building can be considered, unlike under an application for full planning permission where highway safety impacts are a material consideration. As the proposed works do not require planning permission but only listed building consent, and how matters of highway safety are not a material consideration under such proposals, this representation will bare no weight in the determination of this application.

Other Legislative Requirements

Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990

Section 16(2) of the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990 (LBCA Act) states that in considering whether to grant Listed Building Consent for any works the Local Planning Authority shall have special regard to the desirability of preserving the building or its setting or any features of special architectural or historic interest which it possesses.

Section 66 of the LBCA Act requires the local planning authority to have special regard to the desirability of preserving the setting of listed buildings. This requires more than a simple balancing exercise and considerable importance and weight should be given to the desirability of preserving the setting.

Issues

Impact Upon Heritage Asset

44-46A Princess Street is a listed building of high heritage significance with it providing a physical link to Manchester’s industrial past, as well as its façade being impressively ornate. The listed building underwent significant internal alterations to retrofit the building for modern office between 2021 and 2023, alongside 40 Princess Street, which it is now effectively merged with. However, since these works have been completed, the majority of office suites within the building remain unoccupied with those available for use not meeting market demand for smaller self-contained suites. The current proposals form part of a wider series of office fitouts designed to make the space more appealing to potential tenants and to bring the property in line with modern office market demands (Relevant applications being 144627/LO/2025 and 144273/LO/2025).

The proposed works are designed to increase the offer provided by the property’s seventh floor suite to appeal to modern market demands. The alterations follow the design principles set out elsewhere within the listed building, recently approved under consent 144273/LO/2025. Due to this, modern glazed partitions would be installed along the original party wall with 40 Princess Street to create private meeting rooms. The partitions being glazed would allow for greater views through the property’s floorplate compared to solid partitions, with them also having a short depth so as not to noticeably project out into the floorplate, thus visually helping to preserve the property’s historic layout and the expression of the volume of space. Decorative finishes would see breathable paints used, and exposed timber joists and floorboards to be left exposed, in the event of an approval these matters would be secured by condition. Notwithstanding this, it is considered that the proposals would result in a very low level of less than substantial harm to the significance of the listed building by virtue of the introduction of modern partitions and its associated physical impact on the original layout of the listed building's floorplate.

Heritage Assessment and Conclusion

In line with the above, it is acknowledged that a very low level of less than substantial harm would be caused to the significance of the listed building. Notwithstanding this, it is considered there would be sufficient public benefit generated through its implementation that would outweigh the recognised harm, this being the increase in the attractiveness of the office space on site, thereby helping to secure the building's long term occupation. Furthermore, the proposed alterations would be reversible ensuring no permanent damage to the listed building. Therefore, the proposal would meet the requirements as set out under Section 16(2) of the Planning (Listed Building and Conservation Areas) Act 1990 in relation to preservation, and accord with Places for Everyone Plan Policies JP-Strat1, JP-Strat2 and JP-P2, Core Strategy Policies SP1, EC2, EC3, CC1, CC9, EN3 and DM1, Saved Unitary Development Plan Policy DC19, the National Planning Policy Framework, and the Planning (Listed Building and Conservation Areas) Act 1990. On this basis the application is recommended for approval.

Other Legislative Requirements

Equality Act 2010

Section 149 (Public Sector Equality Duty) of the Equality Act 2010 requires due regard to the need to: Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation and other conduct prohibited by the Act and; Advance equality of opportunity between persons who share a protected characteristic and persons who do not share it. The Equality Duty does not impose a legal requirement to conduct an Equality Impact Assessment. Compliance with the Equality Duty involves consciously thinking about the aims of the Equality Duty as part of the process of decision-making.

Human Rights Act 1998 considerations

This application needs to be considered against the provisions of the Human Rights Act 1998. Under Article 6, the applicants (and those third parties, including local residents, who have made representations) have a right to a fair hearing and to this end the local planning authority must give full consideration to their comments.

Protocol 1 Article 1, and Article 8 where appropriate, confer(s) a right of respect for a person's home, other land and business assets. In taking account of all material considerations, including Council policy as set out in the Core Strategy and saved policies of the Unitary Development Plan, the Director of Planning, Building Control & Licensing has concluded that some rights conferred by these articles on the applicant(s)/objector(s)/resident(s) and other occupiers and owners of nearby land that might be affected may be interfered with but that that interference is in accordance with the law and justified by being in the public interest and on the basis of the planning merits of the development proposal. She believes that any restriction on these rights posed by the recommendation given is proportionate to the wider benefits of and that such a decision falls within the margin of discretion afforded to the Council under the Town and Country Planning Acts.

Recommendation: Approve

Article 35 Declaration

Officers have acted positively in determining this application by assessing the proposal against relevant planning policies and all material considerations. The nature of the scheme has not necessitated further discussions with the applicant. On this basis it is decided to grant planning permission in accordance with the presumption in favour of sustainable development.

Conditions to be attached to decision for approval

1) The development must be begun not later than the expiration of three years beginning with the date of this permission.
