Comment Reasons:
Comment:The centre provides a much needed community hub that links Whalley Range, Old Trafford, Firewood, and Chorlton; as well as the wider community.

It's services are tailored for the youth to protect and nurture them, funerals for family and loved ones to come together and grieve, and a space for raise future entrepreneurs and professionals home grown in Manchester. As a centre which meant so much to my late mother, we asked them to open the doors for her short funeral which they accepted. It's a warm and generous community build by it's own neighbours and locals

There is so much to mention on the benefit this centre provides day to day
