Stance: Customer made comments in support of the Planning Application

Comment Reasons:

Comment: I am writing to express my support for The Marque as a neighbouring resident/business. Since becoming part of our area, The Marque has been a positive presence in the community. Their team has consistently demonstrated professionalism, respect for local residents, and a genuine commitment to maintaining a safe and welcoming environment.

The Marque has contributed to the neighbourhood by such as maintaining cleanliness, supporting. Their operations have caused no disruption, and in my experience, they have always responded promptly and responsibly to any matters that concern the community.

I believe The Marque is an asset to our local area, and I fully support their continued presence and any reasonable applications they submit to the Council.

Thank you for taking my views into consideration. Please feel free to contact me if further information is required.

Kind regards,
