Comment Reasons:

Comment: The marquee has become an essential part of the British Muslim Heritage Centre as a place of worship, community gatherings, and charity fundraising events. The numerous positive initiatives of the Heritage Centre should not be overlooked and the integral role of this marquee must be taken into account. The marquee has facilitated charity events raising £1000s along with many community events all of which provide a valuable service to both the local area and humanitarian projects around the world.

I would like to see this extension go through to not lose this important part of the community centre and I believe that this can happen with the portion of unhappy neighbours' concerns being addressed as well.
