Comment Reasons:

Comment: The marquee is essential for the local Muslim community as there is a lack of communal space large enough in this area to accommodate congregational funeral prayers, Ramadan prayers and weekly Friday prayers. Without this facility, my elderly parents would not be able to travel further afield to take part in congregational prayers or meet with friends in their community, leaving them incredibly isolated. The marquee is a vital means to feeling supported and connected for so many people. I urge you to keep the structure standing.
