Hiya,

I've been a Chorlton resident for over a decade, and this development is exactly what the area needs. Please, do not listen to the doubters who are more bothered about what it may do for their house prices (if history is any guide, it will raise them anyway - but i digress), and allow this development. It will bring vital extra money to the local economy, and rejuvenate the area.

I'd be happy to talk about this more, but I'm sure you're inundated: ignore the strawman arguments from the people who falsely claim to be trying to "Save Chorlton", and deliver a development that will safeguard the future of the area while breathing new life into it.

Thanks for your time.
