Comment Reasons:
Comment:This place is vital to the Muslim community in the area. As a doctor, I have seen first hand how a lack of a community and community space can decimate mental health and wellbeing of individuals. This place helps combat that in a big way. It is just large enough for our Friday congregation, and still there is spill of into the main building. It also facilitates prayers in Ramadan which are extremely important. It is also a great place for the community to gather and hosts many events in conjunction with the main building's facilities. The centre won't be able to cater for the size of the Muslim community around it if the marquee is brought down, and it would be an incredible disservice to integration and the Muslim community in the whole of Manchester. The BMHC is recognised nationally, and if its capacity was to be so drastically reduced, the signal that this would send to the Muslims in the area would be incredibly damaging.
