Biodiversity net gain

Biodiversity net gain is a legal requirement for planning permission introduced on 12 February 2024. All applications are required to either provide detailed information proving there will be a biodiversity increase; or explain why the requirement does not apply to the development.

Do you believe that, if the development is granted permission, the general Biodiversity Gain Condition (as set out in Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended)) would apply?

◯ Yes
⊘ No

Biodiversity net gain has been introduced as a general condition for planning permission. As set out in The Environment Act 2021: "grants of planning permission in England [are] to be subject to a condition to secure that the biodiversity gain objective is met". Therefore, in England, all planning permissions are generally subject to biodiversity gain rules, unless they are specifically exempt or out of scope.

If you have stated that the biodiversity net gain requirement does not apply to your application you must provide the reason(s) why, and may also need to supply evidence (especially where you believe the application is eligible for the 'de minimis' exemption).

Please add all the reasons why biodiversity net gain does not apply and enter a justification for each one

Reason biodiversity net gain does not apply:
Self-build and custom build development

Are you building more than nine houses?:
No

Is the total size over 0.5 hectares?:
No

Do all buildings meet the definition of self-build or custom housebuilding as set out in section 1(A1) of the Self-build and Custom Housebuilding Act 2015?:
Yes

Does your Local Planning Authority require applicants for self-build and custom-build development to evidence their eligibility?:
Yes

Please justify the reason why biodiversity net gain does not apply:
The development is considered exempt from the Biodiversity Gain Condition as it involves the operation of a mobile coffee van on an existing hard-surfaced area with no physical alterations to the land, no loss of habitat, no removal of vegetation, trees or hedgerows, and no creation of new built development. The proposal does not affect biodiversity value on the site.

Note: Please read the help text for further information why developments may be exempt or not in scope.

Have arrangements been made for the separate storage and collection of recyclable waste?

- ○ No

If Yes, please provide details:

Details of the pre-application advice received

Pre-application advice was sought from Manchester City Council Planning Service in June 2026 regarding the proposed operation of a mobile coffee van at Pioneer Quay, Rochdale Canal towpath off Deansgate, Manchester.

The advice received indicated that planning permission would be required for the proposal on the basis that the operation would constitute a material change of use of the land due to the vehicle being present for more than 28 days per year. It was also advised that, if the vehicle were to remain on site permanently, planning permission would be required for the structure itself.

The proposal has subsequently been prepared and submitted having regard to the advice provided. The application relates to a mobile coffee van which will be brought to site daily for trading and removed from the site at the end of each trading day, with no permanent structures or physical alterations proposed.
