Good morning Niamh,

Thank you for your email and for providing the additional information and drainage drawings.

Having reviewed the details provided, we can confirm that we do not require any further information at this stage. Based on the information submitted and the nature of the proposed works, a Build Over Agreement is not required.

Should the scope of the works change in a way that may affect the public sewer infrastructure, please let us know so that we can review the proposals accordingly.

Kind regards,

James
