Description of Proposed Works

Please describe the proposed works

Proposed ground floor rear infill extension to existing semi-detached dwelling.
The extension projects just over 3.5m to the rear, sitting flush with the existing kitchen outrigger at ground floor level. The new extension sits at a lower level than the main house, with a step down of 420mm to the new finished floor level internally.
From external ground level, the extension reaches 2.98m to the eaves, with the pitched roof rising a further 1.1m to meet the main house, giving an overall height of approximately 4.08m at the ridge.
In relation to the neighbouring property, the impact of the extension is significantly reduced due to the existing level of the ground floor of the properties. The ground floor finished floor level of both properties sits approximately 750mm above external ground level, with their terrace sitting just below that finished floor level and projecting to the same depth as the proposed extension. As a result, the eaves height of the new extension reads at only 2.23m relative to the neighbour's terrace level, with the overall height to the point where the roof meets the main house reading at 3.325m.
Materials are proposed to match the existing — brick to match and a pitched roof finished in concrete roof tiles to match.
The extension incorporates two new rooflights and the existing bifold doors from the main house are to be removed and reinstalled within the new rear wall of the extension.

Biodiversity net gain

Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value.

This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*.

Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm:

☑ It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply

*A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building.

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:
(a) a member of staff
(b) an elected member
(c) related to a member of staff
(d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

◯ Yes
⊘ No
