Description of Proposed Works

Please describe the proposed works

We are going to buy an Electric Vehicle in September 2026. We have a double gate and a single gate entrance to our front garden. However the double gate is too narrow for a modern car and the length available before the front of the house is also too little to qualify as off road parking. We want to install an EV Charger on the inside of the brick garden wall that adjoins the pavement. Our installers will run the electricity supply cable from the front of the house round the boundary wall to the charger on the front wall. When we needed to charge the car we would unwrap the charging cable and run it through the double gates across the pavement buried in a Manchester City council installed and approved pavement channel and to our car parked outside the house. 99% of the time we can park directly outside the garden gate. In addition to this planning application we are applying to MCC for a pavement channel to be installed.

Has the work already been started without consent?

Biodiversity net gain

Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value.

This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*.

Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm:

☑ It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply

*A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building.

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:
(a) a member of staff
(b) an elected member
(c) related to a member of staff
(d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?
