Biodiversity net gain

Biodiversity net gain is a legal requirement for planning permission introduced on 12 February 2024. All applications are required to either provide detailed information proving there will be a biodiversity increase; or explain why the requirement does not apply to the development.

Do you believe that, if the development is granted permission, the general Biodiversity Gain Condition (as set out in Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended)) would apply?

◯ Yes
⊘ No

Biodiversity net gain has been introduced as a general condition for planning permission. As set out in The Environment Act 2021: "grants of planning permission in England [are] to be subject to a condition to secure that the biodiversity gain objective is met". Therefore, in England, all planning permissions are generally subject to biodiversity gain rules, unless they are specifically exempt or out of scope.

If you have stated that the biodiversity net gain requirement does not apply to your application you must provide the reason(s) why, and may also need to supply evidence (especially where you believe the application is eligible for the 'de minimis' exemption).

Please add all the reasons why biodiversity net gain does not apply and enter a justification for each one

Reason biodiversity net gain does not apply:
Retrospective planning permission

Please justify the reason why biodiversity net gain does not apply:
The application seeks retrospective planning permission under section 73A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 for the existing use of the ground-floor premises. Retrospective planning permissions made under section 73A are not subject to the statutory Biodiversity Net Gain requirement.

Please read the help text for further information why developments may be exempt or not in scope.

Community Infrastructure Levy

Your development may be liable for a charge under the Community Infrastructure Levy if it involves new or additional gross internal area for residential and non-residential buildings, including extensions or a new dwelling. If your scheme is liable, this charge is payable after development begins.

Information on the CIL charges can be found on the local authority website. In London both Mayoral and local borough CIL charges may be applicable.

Your answers below, and in the application, will enable the local authority to establish if your development is liable for a charge and to calculate it accurately.

Further information on CIL, and what to do if you are liable can be found on the Planning Portal.

It is an offence for a person to knowingly or recklessly supply information which is false or misleading in a material respect to a collecting or charging authority in response to a requirement under the Community Infrastructure Levy Regulations (2010) as amended (regulation 110, SI 2010/948). The Council would not support a mixed-use operation comprising both wholesale cash and carry and general retail sales, as such a proposal would extend beyond the scope of a primarily wholesale cash and carry function.

However, the Council would be supportive in principle of a wholesale cash and carry use (sui generis), provided that any retail sales element remains clearly ancillary and subordinate to the principal wholesale operation, ensuring that the primary character and function of the premises as a cash and carry business is maintained.

In that regard, the application would not be retrospective as that is not the current operation.
