EGH Little Library mock-up

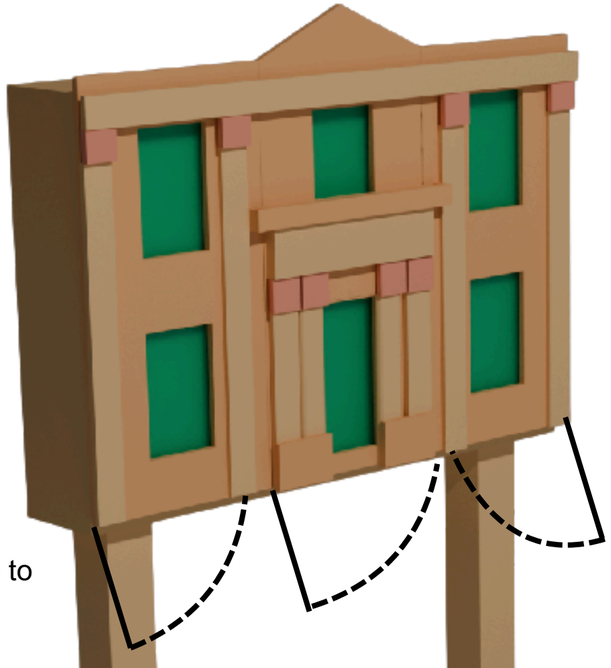

Little Library modelled on Elizabeth Gaskell's House

Wood on the House structure to be primed and painted the same colour as EGH

For the installation with posts 4x4 concreted in the ground with materials such as concrete and posts and metal brackets.

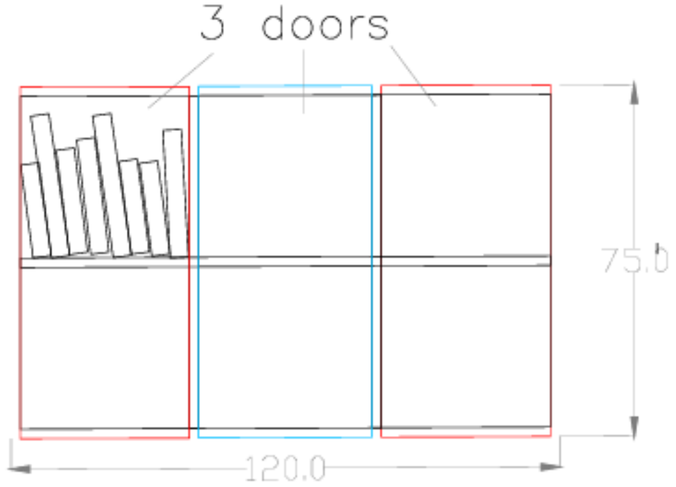

Each door width to be 40cm

Each door width to be 40cm

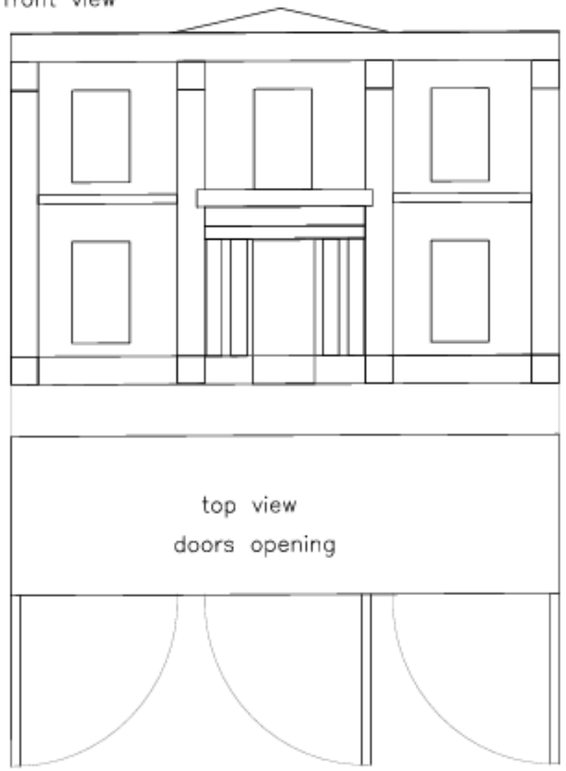

BRINGING MANCHESTER'S Elizabeth GASKELL'S HOUSE LITERARY HERITAGE TO LIFE

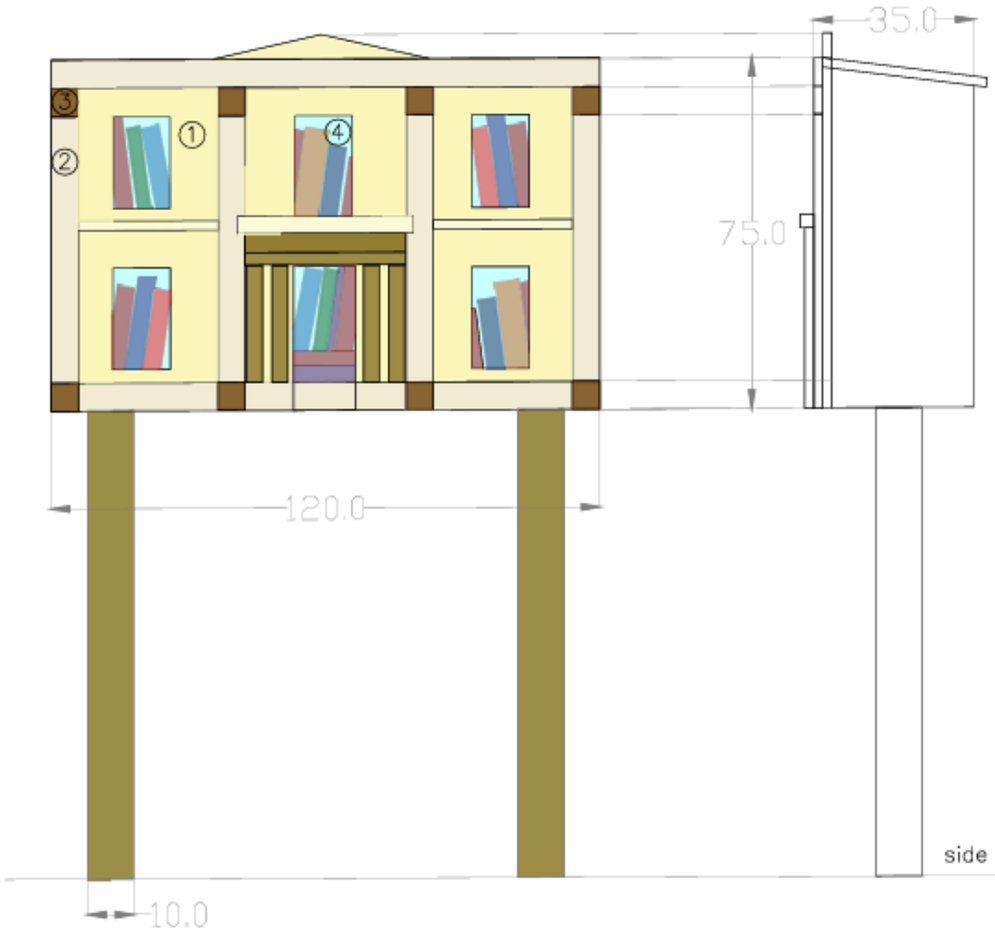

Made possible with Heritage Fund

EGH Little Library mock-up

front view

① painted plywood

② Painted plywood or treated softwood

③ hardwood

④ perspex

The 6 sides and shelves of the bookshelf would be made from exterior grade plywood 20 mm thick.

Books to be stored inside the Little Library on the shelves.

N.B- each of the 3 doors will have fastenings to secure in place when not in use.

Luca Cicchelli - Designer at TouchWood

BRINGING MANCHESTER'S LITERARY HERITAGE TO LIFE
Elizabeth GASKELL'S HOUSE

Made possible with Heritage Fund

EGH Little Library mock-up

NB - Blue/green shows where perspex will be

BRINGING MANCHESTER'S Elizabeth GASKELL'S HOUSE LITERARY HERITAGE TO LIFE

Made possible with Heritage Fund